Joyce Lawrence Cambron : A New Spin on Curved Piecing (Leisure Arts #5273) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A New Spin on Curved Piecing (Leisure Arts #5273):

If I can make this quilt anyone can. The author of the book taught the class and made it easy for all of us. She is from Boise, Idaho and I recommend her book and her classes. Next I hope to get the bag done! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Not for a beginner but read my post By Ms. Penny Skaggs great book but i did not enjoy it until i learned a bit more about quilting and sewing i would not recomend this to a beginner unless you are a quck learner, now i love all the patterns in the book 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Amazing technique By Candra Sowder I actually watched the lady do this at quilt market and it was tooooooo cool! The book is a good value because of the number and variations of patterns to do this curved work.

Designer and teacher Joyce Lawrence Cambron's new book includes all the information needed to learn her simple technique using fabric basting glue for easy curved piecing. Photo diagrams and step-by-step instructions walk the quilter through an easy, beginner project (a Scallop Placemat) and then a great selection of projects that use her technique (Daisy Tote, Square Dance Wall Hanging, Dainty Dahlia Table Topper, Mariner's Swirl Floor Pillow, and more). For quilt shop owners who are looking for a class to add to the shop's schedule, A New Spin on Curved Piecing is a great opportunity!

About the Author Joyce Lawrence Cambron of Seams Like Fun Designs grew up in a middle-class Idaho family of artistic girls and pursued various arts and crafts until a coffee table book about modern American quilting inspired her to begin designing, taking classes, and becoming involved with her local guild. She eventually began working for an online quilt shop and publishing her designs.
