A comprehensive book on Oriental carpet makingBy Alexandra AthanassiouAn excellent reference book on the techniques of oriental rug making. I recommend it.

This book takes the mystery out of this centuries-old art form by illustrating, in detailed steps, how to build a loom and handknot a rug as fine and intricate as those originating in the Middle East and the Orient. This unique book is a comprehensive self-instruction manual, written for both the diligent beginner and the experienced weaver, as well as the needlepoint devotee searching for challenging new designs.
