Monica Lynn Clements, Patricia Rosser Clements : An Unauthorized Guide to Fire-King Glasswares (A Schiffer Book for Collectors) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised An Unauthorized Guide to Fire-King Glasswares (A Schiffer Book for Collectors):

During the 1940s, the Anchor Hocking Glass Company, of Lancaster, Ohio, introduced a line known as Fire-King. This pocket-size guide offers a brief history, with over 200 full color photographs, current market values, and index. Colorful examples of dinnerware, mugs, a myriad of mixing bowls--from splash proof to Swedish Modern styles--a large selection of kitchenware, and ovenware are featured. Copper lustre, jade-ite, sapphire blue, and turquoise blue glasswares are all well represented., 212 color photos, 6" x 9", Price Guide/Index
