I love anything to do with Archie but this was a treasure cause it was from the early years. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four Stars By Sam More for adults than kids but very interesting .14 of 19 people found the following review helpful. Archie Rules! By A Customer Okay, I've been collecting Archie comics since I was like 8 or 9 (5-6 years) and I've got to say that I LOVE THESE COMICS! I have about 500 digests and about 100 flat comics. They aren't you normal "superhero" comics or your Garfield type comics that are only a strip long. These stories run about 4-7 pages long each (there are a lot of stories in a digest comic, even more in a double-digest), except the many part ones which can run up to like 20-30 pages. There are also little page joke ones scattered throughout the books. These comics are funny and very enjoyable to read. Some of the characters and problems you can relate to, while others are just plain outrageous and funny! The characters are each well planned out. Here are a few: The five main ones are: Archie Andrews (of course) - a nice, girl-crazy, well-meaning, but VERY clumsy all around American boy who is in love with two girls (Betty and Veronica) Betty Cooper - a too nice, typical girl next door girl who loves Archie with all her heart. her best friend and worst rival is Veronica Veronica Lodge - snotty, daddy's little rich girl whos father is a zillionaire! but underneath it all, she has a heart of gold. she loves Archie some of the time, but also uses him as a puppet. Reggie Mantle - richer than Archie and Betty, but not a millionaire or anything. he flaunts his new cars and stuff in people's faces. REALLY REALLY conceited and in love with himself (also Veronica) the trickster of the gang Jughead (real name Forsythe) Jones- eats too much, sleeps too much, really lazy, girl-hater. the best friend of Archie, Jughead is really a real great guy. He may look like a slug, but he's really one of the nicest guys in the world other characters include: Moose Mason: very strong, very jealous Midge Klump: Moose's girlfriend, nice, smart Dilton Doiley: a genius, but short which causes girl problem Big Ethel: in love with Jughead Hiram Lodge: Veronica's father, hates Archie Waldo Weatherbee: principal of the high school, has the same problems with Archie as Mr. Lodge and many more, but it would take FOREVER to write them all out! Put them all together, and you get CHAOS!!!!!! These comics are prettily drawn (and in color). If you buy one of these, you'll be hooked for life! (Hey, they've been running since the 40s! People MUST like them!) I personally would give them 5000000 stars! Buy them and you won't regret it.
