This book encompasses knowledge by the professional glass artist Francis Elder II, who has been doing stained glass and art glass work since 1988.In this book he explains in easy to understand terms the process of going from a part time hobbyist to becoming a paid artisan. This how-to book explains in detail the steps involved that will allow you to follow your dreams of becoming a paid art glass artist.He details areas such as; incorporating yourself into your art, designs and pattern making, efficiency, production, custom work, safety, how to price your work, installation and service calls, where and how to sell, insurance, commission sales, using social media, marketing as a whole, teaching and more.

From the AuthorIn this book I also stress the importance of supporting our local supply chains. I feel it is the duty of those of us who publish these types of how-to books and videos to remind those that read and view our works just how important it is to shop local and support our local supply chains.I hope you take the time to look over my book, I am very proud of the amount of information that I have put into this book and the resource that it is for our future generations of artisans and craftspeople.This is just one of the ways I am trying to help keep our art and our craft, vibrant and viable for the future. Enjoy!About the AuthorMy voyage into stained glass began back in 1988 while I was still in high school in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. I always liked to take art and you could find me doodling on a piece of scrap paper at any given moment in time.
