Beginner-Friendly Quilts compiles the best of Fons Porter's Quilty magazine, which is devoted to giving quilting instruction to rookies in little, friendly pieces. Not only are the quilts all for Beginner level, but they are further identified for three stages of beginner skills. There's a super-simple starter project for everyone! Twelve designs include Anni, Chevron On, Kid Potential scrap quilt, 5 Easy Pieces baby quilt, Schoolgirl, Checkers, Bell Bottoms,

Dream Girl charm quilt, Goose Parade, Blonde Redhead, A Game of Hearts, and Amelia (inspired by an antique airplane block). In addition to basic how-tos, there is a selection of technique articles from Quilty Boot Camp.

About the Author A professional writer and performer based in Chicago, Mary Fons co-hosts the nationally-airing PBS program Fons Porter's Love of Quilting along with her mom, famed quilter and educator Marianne Fons. In 2010, Mary created Quilty, an online show offered weekly on QNNtv.com. Targeted primarily to the beginner quilter, Quilty offers instruction, guidance, and inspiration to those who want to learn to make a quilt, whatever their age or experience level. In 2012, Mary became editor of Quilty magazine (New Track Media), which quickly met with critical and commercial acclaim.
