BurninghamI got sewing machines for each of my three young granddaughters for Christmas this year. I am looking forward to teaching them the basics of sewing and getting together regularly for sew days with them. This book was just what I was looking for with some ideas for getting them started and some fun little projects to encourage their interest. I might not want the little animal projects, etc., for myself, but I know they will have fun making them and will be so proud knowing they have made them. Can't wait to get started. I am very happy I bought this book as a starter to our little sew-together times.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Awesome book to launch a beginner into the wonderful world of sewing!By Busy momThis is the perfect introduction to sewing for the beginning seamstress. I love the page by page instructions, activities, and projects. This little book is informative, entertaining, engaging, and fun. Well written and exactly what I was looking for to help my child have a positive introduction to the joy of sewing. I would definitely recommend this to any other mom looking for a fun sewing book to get her child started. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. GREAT book! By M.E. T. The book is FANTASTIC! I got this as a gift for my 8 year old granddaughter who really wanted to learn to sew on the sewing machine. The book taught her all about the parts of the machine. It also stressed safety. I think she could have almost taught herself using this book.

Share the gift of lifelong sewing skills with the children you love.

About the Author In 1982 Nancy Smith and Lynda Milligan joined forces to establish Great American Quilt Factory, Inc. The store, in Denver, Colorado, specialized in quilting patterns, fabrics, classes, and supplies. Four years later, Nancy and Lynda began designing patterns for quilts, stuffed animals, and dolls. In 1985 they formed DreamSpinners, the pattern division of Great American Quilt Factory, Inc. In 1987 the business needed more space and moved to a location on East Hampden Avenue in Denver. Subsequently, DreamSpinners continued to grow and eventually became the largest independent patterns company in the United States. In 1988 Nancy and Lynda created Possibilities as a book publishing division. To date, Possibilities has published more than 80 titles. In 1992 the I'll Teach Myself series was created to introduce sewing to a younger generation. Although Lynda and Nancy have retired from the retail store, they continue to publish books and patterns, and design fabric collections for Quilting Treasures.
