Five StarsBy Richard WrightI enjoyed it very much another great book by Vince !0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. metal artistsBy Gitte GentileI purchased this book for my husband and he loved it. My husband said the book was very good at telling the stories of the featured metal artist.

These 11 Artists and Blacksmiths share their passions, drives and qualities that comprise the Smith of today. The Blacksmith today is one who uses a multitude of disciplines to achieve both art and function. The designs are as diverse as the people who create them using metal as their medium. You will hear their stories of what brought them to forging steel and the challenges of being an Artisan - Innovator - Entrepreneur. Blacksmithing was the King of Crafts - today you decide, Craft or Art.

About the Author Vince Nakovics has been writing articles and conducting interviews of and about Blacksmiths and Blacksmithing for over 10 years. He has been blacksmithing for over 17. He has authored two books so far; American Blacksmiths and 1781 Siege of Yorktown Cannon Carriages. Retired from the US Navy and having worked at Colonial National Historical Park for 13 years he brings those experiences and perspectives to his pen. He continues to expand his writing genre but Blacksmiths and blacksmithing are sure to find a way into his future writings. All of his books are available online and there are more to come.
