One of a kind gem . . .By CustomerAs I sit here surrounded by 160+ quilt tops from a quilter, and another 150+ precut quilt projects from the same quilter, this book has been a godsend. It is clear, concise, and the information easily accessed. It is ready to 'dive in' and start the catalog. A most unexpected find just as I was wondering where to start.4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Excellent concept on publishing my own catalogBy Cookie5750After reading over this self help book, I found that it was not as difficult as

I first thought to produce my very own quilt catalog. Kyra teaches one how to gather all materials needed to be able to complete in a short period of time a catalog that will last for years. This method of preserving my quilts throughout time is exactly what I needed! Thank you Kyra! Sincerely, Tara Evans Omaha, Nebraska

By Sherry A. Byrd
This is the guide to help one to do so. Kyra has really put her heart and soul into assisting fellow quilt makers to publish exceptional quilt catalogs that will get their works before the public eye....thus creating published legacies for future generations to enjoy and cherish.

Be a quilt artist + author! If you know how to use Microsoft Word, have Internet access, and a dozen or more images of your artwork, YOU CAN make your own art catalog. This workbook will show you step-by-step how to concept, layout, write, publish and promote a 24-page or 36-page full-color paperback art catalog. You will also learn how to have your catalog available on Amazon.com, the largest online bookstore. If you have thought about creating a catalog of your artwork for your family and friends, for your regular customers or collectors, for a school project, for your professional artist statement, for an exhibit of your work, or even for your historical quilt or art history research, this workbook is for you! This workbook is specially designed for quilters, quilt historians, textile artists, guilds, and gallery owners.

About the Author
Kyra E. Hicks was mesmerized after seeing Eva Ungar Grudin's 1990 exhibition, "Stitching Memories: African-American Story Quilts," that she began to teach herself to create her own quilts. "I found my voice that afternoon in the museum," she remembers. Today, Kyra's quilts have been included in more than 40 group exhibitions.
