Carol Rowan Carol : I Felt A Bit Funny: Create Crazy Collectibles From Needle-Felted Wool before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised I Felt A Bit Funny: Create Crazy Collectibles From Needle-Felted Wool:

Transforming a handful of unspun sheeps wool into a delightful character can be a magical and rewarding experience. To make the figures in this book all you need is a felting needle, a foam pad, pipe cleaners and wool. Whether you're a novice or seasoned felter, this book gives you over 20 characters to make in easy to follow, detailed step-by-step photographs and instructions. You can create dancers, sun bathers, queens, sportspeople, pirates, policemen, golfers, even a bride and groom. Each one with its own appealing comical character together with accessories. (Carol Rowan)

About the Author Carol Rowan has always enjoyed making things with her hands. She would buy old scraps of lace, remnants of silk, paintflowers on them, and then lay them all out and make them up into a patchwork. From making hats, to creating toys, or sewing wedding dresses, there is not much that Carol hasn't turned her craft skill to. Carol first got into felting some years ago when she was given some sheep's wool, felting needles, a felting pad and a book. These figures have taken on a life of their own and have been sent all over the world. This is Carol's second book after I Felt a Bit Funny.
