The prayers are taken from the Bible and are printed in full with cites included. The designs are all licensed from Shutterstock and they all include a portion of the verse as well. It appears that the designs were originally larger and have been made much smaller to fit only a small portion of the page. That makes many of the elements very small and a little difficult to color.I am using this for my morning prayers. I don't go through the book 1 to 101 but instead I let myself be guided to the prayer I need to focus on. The prayers cover a wide range with everything from giving glory and wonder to pleas for help and understanding.The format of the book is that there is a prayer that takes up the entire left hand page. The right hand page contains ruled journal lines which take approximately 2/3 of the page with the remaining 1/3 being the coloring design. I found that I had to use colored pencils with sharp points, gel pens and markers with small tips in order to color in these. For my sample photos, I used Prismacolor Verithins to get into the small details. The designs are printed on one side of white paper. Bible verses are printed on the reverse of the page with frames that you can color if you choose to do so. While the book is printed on both sides of the page, the coloring pages are printed exclusively on the right hand side. If you use coloring medium that bleed through, you won't damage the other coloring pages but will bleed through to the prayer on the backside of your page. The book, while small, is thick. Because it has a lay-flat binding, it was still fairly easy to get the book open to color. It was a little awkward due to the smaller size but nothing to any extreme. The size of the projects are easily finished in one sitting if you have the right size coloring medium. The cover is really beautiful with colored embossed designs with touches of silver foil accents. The Bible verses in the book are from a variety of translations, including: the Holy Bible, New International Version NIV, the New King James Version, the Holy Bible, New Living Translation, the Holy Bible, English Standard Version, and the Holy Bible Contemporary English Version. When testing for coloring medium reaction with the paper, this is what I found: Alcohol and water-based markers all leak through to some degree (except Tombows brush end which left a colorful shadow on the back of the page.) I suggest a blotter page of card stock or heavyweight paper if you use markers to keep ink from seeping into the next page. Gel pens and India ink pens left slight shadows on the back of the page but did not leak through. Coloring pencils work well with this paper. Both oil and wax based pencils had good color, layered well with same color or different colors, and blended well using a pencil style blending stick. I will list, in the comments section below, the coloring medium I use for testing and which I generally use for coloring my projects. 14 of 14 people found the following review helpful. This is a BEAUTIFUL adult coloring book...and my Mother LOVES it. By Feral Frog I bought this for my Mother. She is almost 90 and suffered a stroke a few years back. This was the first thing that helped her get back to writing after the stroke. She colored and colored and one day she noticed that she could hold a pen and write her name and words again. I keep her supplied in markers, pens, pencils! Great therapy! 6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Great book. By Customer This book is so special. I will get a blessing coloring it and reading, then I will give it to someone who will appreciate the prayers. The pictures are done very well. Great book.

Illustrated Prayers from the Bible offers 101 powerful prayers from Scripture with lined facing pages to scribe your own thoughts and reflections, and an artistic rendering of text from the page's prayer that you may color as you quietly meditate on the Lord's blessings. Bound in heavy stock, the lovely book cover features silver foil accents and embossed and spot varnished design elements. The page edges are lilac color. A presentation page in the front makes this book even more perfect for gift-giving. 6 x 7 x 1/2 Inch - 208 Pages Lay-Flat Binding Ruled Journaling Lines Illustrations to Fill With Color Embossed Spot Varnished Cover Motifs Silver Foil Cover Accents Presentation Page for Gift-Giving
