0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. ideas how to replace commercial lotions, creams, sunscreens, etc. By Good man The author explores the subject of homemade body lotions. Her general idea is that many of the modern commercial cosmetic patterns are often harmful to the skin and overall health. In some cases, the immediate reaction of the body will tell you not to use this or that cosmetic product. However, it's often not the case, because the negative impact may be not momentary. It may even happen that one of your favorite products is actually killing you slowly, while you get the general impression that your skin looks better, etc. So, therefore, the author decided to provide us with the ideas how to replace those products, such as commercial lotions, creams, sunscreens, etc. In most cases, she is using 100% natural oils, butters, juices, gels, and so on. Therefore you will be 100% sure what is that inside of that liquid or cream that you are using as cosmetics. Maybe the book would be better if she had provided some more theoretical information, tips, fundamental ideas and so on. But the lotion recipes are good, so it's 4-star book for me. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. This book was helpful for a beginner like me. It was also a good read that I might also get in business with this product line.
