I assembled it and sent it to him. I had friends and family write little notes which I put inside the envelopes and I tied candies to each day. He really enjoyed it, and it really brightened his boring chu. The box and additional materials were a very nice touch. It is religious in nature, fyi, which is not a problem for me, but this wouldn't be a good gift for an atheist.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy Becky M.Nice product!7 of 7 people found the following review helpful. Advent PackageBy Janet F. MorganI ordered this product for my son, stationed in Afghanistan. I had my siblings, nephews, nieces, friends, etc. all write on the cards so my son had a special note from each person through the Advent Season. What a fabulous gift for him. It was a quality product and a great concept.

Advent calendars have been popular with families around the world for years, and this beautiful holiday gift set will enrich the tradition. It takes a truly unique approach. In addition to the calendar, the package features 10 feet of decorative foil-trimmed ribbon in cheery seasonal colors. Twenty-five variously-sized envelopes in Christmas red and green hang from the ribbon; they're all numbered and each contains a Christmas Advent card with original illustrations, a passage from the Nativity story, and room for parents to write a special note to their children. On December 1st, kids can begin opening one envelope per day all the way to Christmas. It's a great way for children to learn about Christmas and feel the holiday spirit and excitement.
